NUMB. 2448

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20. 1743.

Rome, April 6.

N the last of last Month the Pope held a private Council, to which were admitted the Cardinals Valenti, Albani, Russo, Riviera, and Passionei; wherein they deliberated on the Mischief drawn upon the Ecclesiastical State by the long Stay therein of the Spanish Army. But as their Polititics could not furnish them with any Remedy, they very wisely contented themselves with sending the necessary Orders for providing the Count de Gages Troops with Necessaries during their Stay in Romagna; and dispatched, at the same time, a Courier to Madrid, with Orders to the Nuncio there to solicit his Catholic Majesty more earnestly than ever, that his Troops may be speedily removed. Count Spada, Minister from the Grand Duke, waited upon his Holiness this Afternoon, to present him with the Legacy lately left him by the Electress Dowager Palatine. It consists of an Ecce Homo in Miniature, painted by the Hand of St. Mary Magdalene Pazzi, with two Verses under it written by the same Saint; the Frame is of Ebony and Azure, very richly gilt. The Pope received it very graciously, and expressed himself much satisfied at having the Possession of so great a Curiosity. Cardinal Aquaviva is hard at work on a Manifesto, which is to prove the Queen of Spain's indefeasible Right not only to the Allodial Estates of the House of Medicis, but also to the Duchy of Tuscany itself. A Courier is just arrived with the News of Cardinal Alberoni's being so ill at Bologna that his Life is despair'd of.

Naples, April 3. The Court is at last come to a Resolution to march all the Regular Troops to the Frontiers of the Ecclesiastical State, that they may be in Readiness to join the Spaniards, in case her Catholic Majesty cannot be prevailed on to drop that Measure. In the mean time, the Militia have been ordered to march towards this City, not only to reinforce the Garrison, but to form a Camp in the Neighbourhood, in order to cover this Capital from any Insult; of which however we are the less in fear, since it is certain that three English Men of War which were lately in our Seas are sailed for Sardinia.

Leghorn, April 6. Our Advices from Corsica are pretty uniform, and assert, that the People are quite cool'd in their Attachment to King Theodore; that they stile his Promises Cabalistical, and promise to receive him when he has summoned the four strong Places in the Island. The Corsican Nation held lately a General Assembly at Boffio, where they elected two Generals, five Lieutenant-Generals, and several other Officers, Civil and Military. In this Assembly they declared, that provided they were restored to the Use of Fire-Arms; and their other Privileges, they were content to remain under the Obedience of the Republic; but that otherwise they would defend their Liberties to the last Gasps. It is very remarkable, that at the breaking up of this Assembly they publish'd an Edict, recalling all their Countrymen out of several Services, in the same Times, and under the same Penalties, as are mentioned in King Theodore's Manifesto. He remains, in the mean time, at a Country Seat between this Town and Florence, where he amuses himself, as he gives out, till three Ships arrive, with which he is to return to Corsica.

Paris, April 11. Some People pretend to say, that the Command of the Army on the Moselle will be given to Marshal Maillebois; but this is thought to stand in need of Confirmation. After all the Stories that have been told concerning the Commission of the Count de Morsique, Captain of his Imperial Majesty's Life-Guard, comes out, in truth, to be this, He is charged to acquaint his Majesty with the Reasons that oblige the Emperor not to trust to the Assurances given him, as to the safety of his Person at Frankfort; and at the same time to acquaint him, that he is resolved to put himself at the head of his Army, and to hazard a decisive Action. His Majesty has been pleas'd to declare the Count de Luttreck his Envoy Extraordinary at the Imperial Court. He still talk from time to time of Peace, tho' to very little Purpose. The Militia began to draw at the Royal Hospital of Invalids on the 17th; the Number of those that are summoned is 47,800. According to the Orders they dispatch'd at Douay, for providing an extraordinary Number of Mortars, a Train of heavy Artillery, and Furnaces for heating Iron Bullets, it looks as if we had some Bombardment in View; tho' the prevailing Opinion here is, that we shall open the Campaign with the Siege of Luxembourg.

Brussels, April 15. Count Konegseg has lately sent 300,000 Florins to the Duke of Arenberg. On the 19th the English Cavalry remaining here, consisting of the Blue Guards, the Life Guards, the Regiment of Col. Ligonier, and that of Pembroke, march'd under the Command of General Honeywood and the Earl of Albemarle.

The uncommon Success, above Forty Years last-past, of the so much famed and only true Original
ROYAL CHYMICAL WASH-BALL,
FOR beautifying the Face, Neck and Hands; hath induced many Envious Persons, not only in every Part of London, but in many Places in the County, to sell a Counterfeit White Ball (which may prove prejudicial, as well as ineffectual) in Imitation of the true one.
To prevent as much as possible any Mistakes in Prejudice to our Customers, we give this special Notice, That the True Sort are now sold only at Mrs. King's Toyshop, the Blue-coat Boy, against the Cross-Keys Tavern in Cornhill; and (since Mrs. Giles's Decease) by Mrs. Dunn, a Milliner, at the Blue Ball near the Inner Temple Gate in Fleet-street. Price 1 s. each Ball, or 1 s. to the Dozen; but no Allowance for less than 12 Balls at a Time, nor will they ever be sold any where else, except Notice be first given in these Advertisements of it.
Their true and real Virtues have been sufficiently attested in all the Years that they have been Sold by Publication, and the more so, as they are still more than ever used and admired by both Sexes of the best Quality, and many Thousands of Gentry and Others, for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be paralleled by any Wash or Wash-balls, &c. of any Kind or Form; for these Balls are indeed real Beautifiers of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ringworms, Morpew, Sunburn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits, or Redness of the Small-Pox, and keeping it of a lasting and extream Whiteness; they soon alter red or rough Hands, are admirable in shaving the Head, not only giving a most exquisite Sharpness to the Razor, but so comfort the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catching Cold. They are of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury, and may be eaten for their Safety.

This Day is Publish'd,
[Neatly Bound in CALF. Price 2 s. 6 d.]
The EIGHTH EDITION,
With some very material Additions, and several vulgar Errors, concerning the Female Sex, (revised) of—

To Persons of either Sex Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY, or other NERVOUS DECAYS NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES.
PARALYSIS, and PARALYTICK DISTEMPERS, so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pernicious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Remedy, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced with vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprising Success, even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Distempers, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that he those labouring under these miserable Afflictions, might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.
But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Restoration of all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Relaxation of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, and other Contractions of them, vanish and return no more: and though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard Labour, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wish'd for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expels Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and renews the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Distempers suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.
This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Square, low the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 1 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.
